CALL FOR GRANT PROPOSALS

The Amandla Omoya Trust aims to boost social and economic development within a 50-kilometre radius from the Jeffreys Bay Wind Farm. The Trust partners with local institutions in building strong communities for sustainable development that addresses historical inequalities. It supports community-driven development initiatives through grantmaking, capacity building of local organizations, and other initiatives.

The Trust hereby calls for grant applications from eligible groups within the beneficiary community area to support the following kinds of activity over a period of no longer than 12 months starting in March 2020:

Community-based nutrition initiatives that support vulnerable people including children in daycare centers and primary schools, and elderly people in Thornhill, Hankey, and Patensie.

The Amandla Omoya Trust has a total grant of R2 000 000 to distribute to all successful applicants. Applications can include infrastructure development and/or operational expenses.

Please make sure that your proposal or business plan includes at least the following:

1. Background information about your organization, group, or company including:
  - Organizational history.
  - Organizational achievements so far.
  - The organizational structure.
  - Your vision statement.
  - Your mission statement.
2. A brief problem statement that describes the issue or needs that your project will address.
3. The objectives, outcomes, or revenue for enterprises that your initiative seeks to achieve.
4. A description of the specific activities that you will undertake with a grant from the Trust.
5. Who the target group or market for the initiative is.
6. Timeframes for the implementation of the initiative.
7. A clear budget for the use of grant funds.
8. The most recent audited financial statements for your organization, group, or company (or unaudited annual financial statements and an explanation of why you do not have audited financial statements).
9. A clear description of the risks or challenges that you will face in implementing the project.

The deadline for submission of grant applications is 15 January 2020.

Please send your grant proposals to Zukile Tom at zukile@amandlaomoyatrust.co.za
